x offer deferred interest without interest if paid in full for 6 months on purchases of $199 or more made with your Synchrony Car Care™ credit card. Interest will be levied on your account from the date of purchase if the advertising purchase is not paid in full within 6 months. Minimum monthly payments required. Buying a gas station is not allowed. The qualifying amount of the purchase must be on one receipt. No interest will be charged on the promotional balance if you repay it, in full, during the promotional period. If you do not, interest will be charged on the promotional balance from the date of purchase. The required minimum monthly payments may or may not be repaid by the end of the promotional period, depending on the amount of purchase, the duration of the promotion and the distribution of payments. Regular account terms apply to non-promotional purchases and, after the end of the promo period, to the promotional balance. For new accounts: Purchase of Asia-Pacific is 29.99%. The minimum interest fee is $2. Existing cardholders: See the terms of the credit card agreement. Subject to loan approval. Deferred interest: How does it work? How do my monthly payments are calculated? Minimum monthly payments based on the percentage of your account balance or the minimum amount are required in accordance with the standard terms of the account. It is important to note that the required minimum monthly payments may or may not pay off the purchase by the end of the advertising period. If you want to make sure that your purchase is paid for before the end of the advertising period (to avoid interest), you should schedule additional or larger payments accordingly. How long will it take to pay off the purchase? There will be information on your payment statement on how long it will take to pay off your account if you only make the minimum payments. What is the interest rate and will it change? Interest will be levied on your account from the date of purchase if the purchase's advertising balance is not paid in full during the advertising period. Although interest will be accrued at the standard rate applicable to your account, it will be accrued and added to your account only as a lump sum at the end of the advertising period if the purchase's advertising balance is not paid in full by the expiration date shown in your application. To avoid paying interest, be sure to pay the purchase's advertising balance by the expiration date. How to avoid paying interest or minimize the interest paid? Pay your advertising balance in full until the end of the advertising period to avoid interest. If you do not make a payment on time, you will be charged for being late (see for more details). Dateline: STAMFORD, Connecticut Public Information Company: NYSE: SYF STAMFORD, Connecticut - As the number of drivers and the average age of vehicles1 on the road continues to grow, so can auto-related maintenance and fuel costs. The new Synchrony Car Care credit card, launched by Synchrony Financial (NYSE:SYF), the first consumer service company for financial services, offers motorists the convenience of a single card to pay for a comprehensive service station in thousands of service locations, as well as fuel at gas stations across the country. The new Synchrony Car Care card replaces the CarCareONE card® using an existing network that has helped millions of consumers finance car parts and services for more than three decades. The new program expands utility and enhances benefits, while relying on the same basic cost of offering special funding for purchases of $199 or more.2 It is evolving to meet the needs of drivers for a special payment solution for day-to-day gas purchases and an expanded reception network for both planned and unexpected automotive costs. Synchrony Car Care credit card is issued and maintained by Synchrony Bank. As part of the launch, Synchrony worked with Discover Global Network® the third largest payment network in the world to greater recognition in the fuel segment. In addition to taking on thousands of merchants on the Synchrony Car Care network, the new card can be used for shopping at gas stations across the country everywhere Discover is accepted. In B The Car Care Card is an important financial resource for drivers to maintain or improve their vehicles, and to manage their family's car costs through one convenient payment method, said Glenn Marino, Executive Vice President and CEO, Payment Solutions, for Synchrony Financial. Consumer and trade input is vital in enhancing this market-leading program in a way that provides greater value and flexibility for both car owners and service providers. Discover offers innovative solutions that help businesses grow, and we are excited to work with Synchrony Financial to expand the adoption of their new Synchrony Car Care card, said Diana Offerreins, President of Payment Services at Discover. Nearly three million existing cardholders across the country will be able to use Synchrony Car Care through a wider admissions network to get gas conveniently, and for all auto-related needs in their preferred service providers and online stores. From independent auto professionals to full-service networks, Synchrony Car Care covers more than 25,000 service and parts throughout the United States, including Puerto Rico, and more than 185,000 gas stations nationwide. The updated mobile app allows users to find their closest network partners, track costs, manage their account and access offers through their mobile device. Details, including business locator and credit application, are available mysynchrony.com/carcare. Research conducted with automotive (tires/wheels, maintenance and spare parts) cardholders for Synchrony Financial shows the importance of financing in the automotive sector and in driving customer satisfaction. Among car card holders surveyed as part of the main study of buying Synchrony.3 one-third (33%) of car cardholders, inform that they would not have made a major purchase (more than $500), or would have gone to another retailer if funding was not available.
